

New to Medicare? Know When to Enroll

Enrollment Periods

When you qualify for Medicare because you turn 65, or are under 65 with certain disabilities, you will have an initial enrollment period and opportunities each year to make changes to your coverage.

Annual Election Period

October 15 - December 7 each year

Switch from one Medicare Advantage plan to another Medicare Advantage plan*.

Switch from one Medicare Prescription Drug Plan (PDP) to another PDP.

Drop Original Medicare and enroll in a Medicare Advantage plan.

Drop Medicare Advantage plan and return to Original Medicare.

Medicare Open Enrollment

January 1 - March 31 each year

Switch from a Medicare Advantage Plan*, to another Medicare Advantage Plan*.

Disenroll from a Medicare Advantage Plan and return to Original Medicare. If you choose to do so, you can join a Medicare Prescription Drug Plan.

If you enrolled in a Medicare Advantage Plan during your Initial Enrollment Period, you can change to another Medicare Advantage Plan* or go back to Original Medicare* within the first 3 months you have Medicare.

Special Enrollment Period

Occurs with a Qualifying Life Event

In addition to the Annual Election Period and Open Enrollment Period, Medicare allows beneficiaries to make changes to their Medicare Advantage or prescription drug coverage when certain life events happen.

These events could include a permanent move, a change in health status, a doctor leaving a network, or even a local disaster. Find out if you are eligible for a Special Enrollment Period - call us today!
