New Jersey Postpones Filing Deadline for 1094/1095

This is a follow up to the MMA Compliance Alert on Individual State Mandates released on Friday, February 14, 2020. The State of New Jersey has postponed the deadline for their new filing 1094/1095 requirement from March 31, 2020 to May 15, 2020. As a reminder, this requirement applies to all covered individuals who are residents of the state of New Jersey and is required of all applicable large employers (ALE's) and self-insured small groups regardless of where the company is located. The State will not accept paper filings, for information on how to file electronically from New Jersey State click here.
